MetLife Foundation: Advancing financial inclusion

MetLife Foundation was created in 1976 to continue MetLife’s long tradition of corporate contributions and community involvement. Since our founding, we’ve contributed over $600 million in grants worldwide. Today, the Foundation is dedicated to a vision of financial inclusion based on three pillars:

→ Access to knowledge
  Increasing low-income families’ readiness, willingness, and ability to engage with the financial sector.

→ Access to services
  Delivering high-quality financial services and products to low-income individuals and communities around the world.

→ Access to insights
  Investing in research and sharing what we learn with the financial inclusion community.

In 2013, we committed $200 million over the next five years to help build a secure future for individuals and communities around the world.

Committed to the environment

We recognize that the well-being of our planet is critically important. In 2011 we received the Green Power Leadership Award from the United States Environmental Protection Agency. We have received a 2013 Carbon Disclosure Project Score of 92 and a Performance Band of “A-” for continuous improvements year-over-year.

> Invested over $2.9 billion in renewable energy projects, including wind, solar, hydro, geothermal and biomass.

> Electric Vehicle (EV) Car Charging Stations at 14 U.S. corporate offices. Available free to employees.

> All of MetLife’s U.S. owned and occupied offices are Energy Star certified and over 50% are LEED certified.

> Around the world, we own equity stakes in 23 Leadership in Energy and Environmental Design (LEED) properties.

MetLife has an equity partnership in the Gulf Wind Project, a fully operational wind farm in Texas that produces clean energy equivalent to the power needs of 80,000 homes.
